1. READING ENGAGEMENT

Ask the student to bring his or her completed Student Reading Survey to the conference.

2. ORAL READING FLUENCY

INTRODUCTION

*T: In this story, Froggy and Princess, Princess loses a prized possession. Please read aloud to the star on page 4. Show the student where to stop reading at the .

RECORD OF ORAL READING

Record the student's oral reading behaviors. Note the student's fluency (expression and phrasing). Be sure to time the student's reading.

Once upon a time, in a not - so - faraway kingdom, there lived a girl named Princess. You probably assume that a girl with such a name would be haughty and delicate, but that is not necessarily so. This particular Princess played ice hockey, did her own laundry, and often watched soccer with her father. She had her faults, but she also had her virtues.

One day, as she and her mother were rearranging things in the attic, Princess spied a fancy box in a carton of old papers.

“What’s in this?” she wondered aloud. Before her mother could answer, Princess pried open the box to find a golden locket and chain.

“Ah,” her mother exclaimed, “you’ve found your great-grandmother’s most prized possession!”

Princess was captivated with the antique necklace. “This belonged to Miss Princess?” she asked, recalling the many stories she had heard about the great-grandmother for whom she had been named.

“Yes,” her mother answered, “it was the first thing she bought when she began earning money. We were planning to give it to you when you got older.”

Princess carefully pulled the necklace from its wrappings and held it up to her neck.

“Can’t I have it now, Mom?” she pleaded. “I promise to take extra special care of it!”

“No, love,” her mother answered gently. “When you’re older, you will be more appreciative of its true value.”

Princess wanted to argue with her mother, but she realized arguing would get her nowhere. So she placed the golden locket and chain back in the box and slowly handed it to her mother.

Time: _____ minutes:seconds

ORAL READING WORDS PER MINUTE, PERCENT OF ACCURACY

Use the student's oral reading time to circle the WPM range.

Word Count: 266

	INTRVN	INSTR	IND	ADV
Minutes:Seconds	2:59 or more	2:58–2:09	2:08–1:40	1:39 or less
WPM	89 or less	90–124	125–160	161 or more

Count the number of miscues that are not self-corrected. Circle the percent of accuracy based on the number of miscues.

	INTRVN	INSTR	IND		ADV
Number of Miscues	12 or more	10–11	7–9	4–6	1–3	0
Percent of Accuracy	95 or less	96	97	98	99	100

- If the student's score falls in a shaded area for either WPM or Accuracy, STOP! Reassess with a lower-level text.

3. COMPREHENSIONPREDICTION

Students do not use the text when making their predictions.

T: Follow the directions on the first page of your Student Booklet. After you have finished your predictions, come to me (or raise your hand).

Note: For students who have an Individual Education Plan in place for reading and/or written communication, follow the directions in their plan. You may read aloud the prompts in the Student Booklet and/or scribe their responses if required. Give no additional prompts.

While the student completes the Prediction page, complete the Teacher Analysis of Oral Reading on the next page and circle the descriptors on the DRA2 Continuum that best describe the student's oral reading fluency.

Note: After the student has completed the Prediction page, continue with the assessment if time permits. Otherwise, have the student read the book and complete the Student Booklet at another time.

STUDENT READS AND RESPONDS

All students may use the text to complete pages 2–5 of the Student Booklet.

T: Read the story. As you read, use the graphic organizer on page 2 of the Student Booklet to help you record the important information from this story. When you are finished, write a summary of what you have read and answer the remaining questions in the Student Booklet. If you have questions, please come to me (or raise your hand).

Choose three to five learning/teaching activities on the DRA2 Focus for Instruction on the next page.

DRA2 FOCUS FOR INSTRUCTION

Wide Reading

- Teach student strategies to select appropriately leveled texts for independent reading
- Introduce student to reading materials from a variety of genres and purposes
- Teach strategies to build reading stamina
- Create structures and/or routines to support reading at home
- Develop and monitor clear expectations for amount of independent reading
- Teach student how to use a reading log to monitor book selection and set reading goals

Self-Assessment/Goal Setting

- Model and discuss strategies good readers use
- Help student identify 1–2 reading goals and a plan of action to improve reading
- Support revision of ongoing reading goals

ORAL READING FLUENCY

Expression and Phrasing

- Model and teach reading in longer, meaningful phrases with appropriate expression
- Have student practice appropriate expression with familiar texts
- Have student participate in choral reading and/or reader's theater
- Teach student to heed punctuation

Rate

- Provide materials and time for repeated readings and timed readings to increase reading rate
- Give opportunities for student to read lower-level and/or familiar texts at an appropriate rate

Accuracy: Word Analysis

- Support and reinforce self-corrections of miscues
- Model and support how to take words apart (e.g., onset and rime, syllables) to problem-solve unknown words
- Teach how to use word chunks and analogies to problem-solve unknown words
- Provide spelling activities and word sorts to help student recognize patterns in words

COMPREHENSION

Questioning/Prediction

- Provide opportunities for student to discuss what he or she knows about the characters and setting based on title and book cover, as well as opening paragraphs and illustrations of texts read aloud
- Teach how to make and confirm predictions prior to and during reading
- Model and support using background information to make meaningful predictions
- Model and support using knowledge of text structures/genre characteristics to make predictions

Literal Comprehension/Note Taking

- Show student how to use key words to identify specific information from the text
- Provide opportunities for student to answer and construct literal questions
- Help student locate and record specific details
- Model and teach note taking
- Provide visual outlines/graphic organizers
- Teach student how to use and construct graphic organizers to keep track of story information
- Teach active monitoring (e.g., using sticky notes to record questions, key ideas, confusions, etc.)
- Give feedback on student notes

Summary

- Share and identify characteristics of good summaries
- Model and co-construct written summaries of texts read aloud
- Model and support how to distinguish between more important and less important ideas and details
- Model and support how to write a summary in one's own words
- Teach student how to use a graphic organizer as an aid to creating a summary
- Teach student how to identify story elements (e.g., characters, setting, plot)
- Provide time for student to practice oral and written summaries

Interpretation

- Teach and share examples of inferences
- Model and support how to identify important text implications
- Provide opportunities for student to support inferences with examples from the text
- Give student opportunities to respond to and construct inference questions orally and in writing

Reflection

- Help student identify important information and/or key vocabulary in a variety of texts
- Provide opportunities to identify and discuss a significant message or event in a story
- Provide opportunities to discuss theme/most important idea of stories read aloud
- Demonstrate and teach student how to support opinion with details from the text

Metacognitive Awareness

- Model and teach comprehension strategies for fiction texts
- Provide opportunities for student to practice using a specific comprehension strategy (e.g., making connections, visualizing, responding emotionally)
- Help student identify examples in a text where he or she used a specific strategy

INTERPRETATION

How do you think Princess felt when she and Martin headed off to see her great-grandmother's statue? Use information from the story to support your answer.

REFLECTION

What do you think is the most important event in this story? _____

Tell why you think that event is important. _____

Check 1 comprehension strategy that you used to help you understand this story.

- Making connections: I thought about similar experiences and/or stories.
- Questioning: I asked myself questions as I read.
- Visualizing: I pictured what was happening.
- Inferring: I thought about the reasons why things happened.
- Responding emotionally: I understood the character's feelings.

Give at least 2 specific examples from this story that show how you used this comprehension strategy.

Reread what you have written to make sure your answers are the way you want them before you hand in your booklet.
